Martin Dies Campout Update

According to MOST of the troop's leadership and scouts, Martin Dies campout was a great success. Even though the weather didn't cooperate for the entire campout (and since when does it during a camping trip??) and one un-named Assistant Scoutmaster now has to purchase a new tent, our young men made some new camping memories.

The scouts enjoyed presentations from a park naturalist and a visitor from North Carolina. We heard that the Mexican Eagle (Caracara) and the screeching owl were the highlights of Saturday's events.

Several of the Ninja patrol were able to accomplish a lot of their scout requirements and our older scouts had the opportunity to finish up their lashing requirements with Mr. Steubing.

Camp-o-ree will be held at Camp Bovay March 27-29. The District has set the competition events that each Patrol will be working on during their patrol meetings this month. Camp cost is to be determined
